Weddings at St. James's

Congratulations on your engagement! We hope that this time of preparation is joyful and meaningful. The Celebration and Blessing of a Marriage is a sacramental rite of the Episcopal Church. In Christian Marriage, the couple enter into a life-long union and make their vows before God and the church. As your faith community, St. James's is grateful to share in your special day. It is our hope that these guidelines will offer you a clear understanding of our particular procedures and policies, and insight into what a marriage and wedding ceremony at St. James's Episcopal Church entails.

First Steps

Who can get married at St. James's?

We are a faith community. As such, we expect that at least one of the couple is baptized and that one of them, or a member of their immediate family, is a pledging member of St. James's.

Who should I talk to about a wedding at St. James's?

All arrangements for a marriage are made with the clergy. The Canons of the Episcopal Church require 30 days' notice. The availability of the church for a wedding may be determined by calling the Parish Coordinator; however, only the clergy can confirm a wedding date.

When may a wedding take place?

Weddings may be scheduled on Saturdays between 11:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. To ensure that each ceremony is as beautiful and memorable as you hope it to be, only one wedding may be scheduled on any day.

May I include communion in the service?

Including Holy Eucharist as part of the wedding ceremony is not only appropriate, but encouraged. All those who desire to know Christ are welcomed to the altar to receive either communion or, if preferred, a blessing.

After the Date Is Set

Premarital counseling is a healthy beginning for all couples (and is required by the Canons). The couple should arrange for a conference with the officiating priest as soon as possible. Being divorced does not prohibit remarriage in the Episcopal Church; however, if either party has been married before (except for widows and widowers), the clergy must petition the Bishop to receive permission to perform the wedding.

Now it's time to call the Organist! Music is a very important part of every wedding ceremony. Ask the Organist to reserve your wedding date on her calendar and set a time for a consultation. (For further information regarding music, see "Music for Weddings" on page 7.)

Wedding rehearsals are at 5:00 p.m. the day before the wedding. St. James's provides each couple with extra help from its Wedding Director, who assists at both the rehearsal and the wedding. An outside wedding coordinator is not needed at the church. If the couple has a wedding coordinator, he/she must take direction from the church's Wedding Director regarding anything that happens at the church.

Please complete the Holy Matrimony Information Form (which is included in your wedding information packet) as soon as possible and send it to "St. James's Episcopal Church, Attention: Wedding Director," 1205 W. Franklin St., Richmond, VA 23220. The Bulletin Information Form (if applicable), marriage license, and all fees (see page 13) are due into the church office at least TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE WEDDING.

At The Church

Rooms are available at the church for the bride and her attendants to use to dress. The bride and her attendants may bring their attire to the church before the rehearsal. Arrival can be up two hours before the wedding but not earlier. Please make arrangements with our Wedding Director.

While this is a glorious day of celebration, please wait until the reception to enjoy any alcoholic beverages. Consumption of alcohol (such as champagne and other spirits) is not permitted in the dressing rooms or on church property.

Because it creates a safety hazard, St. James's does not permit any substance to be thrown or dropped on church property. This includes flowers or petals dropped in the aisle by a flower girl and materials such as rice or birdseed on the outside steps.

Altar Flowers and Chancel Decorations

The traditional decorations in the sanctuary for a wedding at St. James's includes altar flowers and pew markers and, if requested, candles. The Altar and Flower Guilds have the sole responsibility for these decorations.

A timely meeting with the florist who will be making your bouquets and boutonnieres is very helpful when coordinating floral arrangements in the church. Shortly following that meeting, you should contact the Flower Guild's Chairman to discuss the colors and types of flowers you'd like to order for the altar and, if requested, floral pew markers. While the Flower Guild is responsible for all floral arrangements inside the sanctuary, your florist may create arrangements in the two urns located in the narthex. Decorations outside the church, including flower petals, wreaths, balloons, etc., are not permitted.

In addition to the candles on the altar, seven-branch candelabras are available for use in the chancel. Hurricane lamps are available to place in the windows at 6:00 p.m. weddings scheduled November through February. St. James's does not permit use of a "unity" candle.

The Chancel Decorations Information Sheet (which is included in your wedding information packet) should be completed and returned to the church's Wedding Director at least two months prior to the wedding. The banners and other worship decorations in the sanctuary are sacred items and may not be moved or removed.

Altar flowers remain in the church for Sunday services and are distributed to the sick and home-bound at the conclusion of the last service on the following Sunday. The couple may request that some of the flowers be sent to a local person of their choice. If you choose to do so, please make arrangements through the Parish Coordinator the week before the wedding.

Music for Weddings

Music is an integral part of the wedding service. A marriage service in the Episcopal Church is a worship service, and the music selected should reflect the sacred and joyful nature of the service and enhance the beauty of the wedding liturgy. Music outside of the sacred repertoire is inappropriate during the service and is not permitted.

Consultation

St. James's Organist plays for all weddings held in the church nave. If she is unavailable for a wedding, she will secure a suitable substitute.

The Organist consults with the wedding couple to select music for the service: the processions in and out, hymns, and any vocal solos or instrumental pieces. At this consultation, the Organist will suggest several appropriate choices from her repertoire from which the couple will choose.

Music Before the Service

Appropriate music is played before the service while guests are arriving. This prelude usually consists of six or seven pieces ordered to reflect the moods of the service: joyful, festive, serious, grand. While you are welcome to request specific pieces, the final selection of prelude music is left to the discretion of the organist.

Music During the Service

The service begins with the formal procession of the wedding party (the priest, groom, best man, groomsmen, bridesmaids, and bride) into the church. The procession may be an appropriate organ piece(s) or a hymn, either sung by the congregation or simply played on the organ.

Hymns of praise or solos may be sung during the service, and at the conclusion of the service a joyous and exuberant or stately organ piece or hymn is played for the procession of the wedding party out of the church.

Soloists and Other Musicians

Couples may choose to add soloist, a choir, or instrumentalists for the wedding service. If additional musicians are desired, the organist will arrange for their services and schedule additional musical rehearsals as necessary.

Chimes

The St. James's chimes are a beautiful and joyous way to conclude the wedding celebration. If you wish, the chimes can be manually pealed as the wedding party and guests exit the church. Please let the organist know if you would like this at your wedding, and she will secure a pealer.

Please note that there are additional fees associated with the use of any extra musicians, including a pealer.

Note: You will find it helpful to bring the following list of music recommendations with you to the consultation with the organist, so that you can more easily identify and remember the various choices as they are played.

Photographs and Videos

A wedding is an important event in the life of a family, and photographs and videos provide treasured lasting mementos of the occasion. While these will preserve a connection to this wonderful day for years to come, it's important to be aware that the wedding itself is a worship service.

We want to protect the sanctity of the sacrament and remind everyone associated with the wedding that nothing may be allowed to interfere with the service. To avoid misunderstanding and confusion on the day of the wedding, it is the couple's responsibility to provide a copy of the following guidelines for the photographer and/or videographer before the wedding day.

Guidelines for Photographers and Videographers:

1. Photographs and videos may be taken freely outside the church before and after the service.
2. Photographs may be taken in the church before the service. The church will be open for photographers two hours before the service and photographers must be finished 30 minutes before the service is scheduled to start.
3. Professional still and video photographers may take pictures during the service using only a stationary camera or cameras set up on tripods in the balcony, which must be in position at least 60 minutes before the service begins. No movement is permitted in the balcony after the organist begins to play. All photos and videos made during the service must be made with natural light. No flashes or video lights are permitted during the service. Care should be taken to lessen the sound of the shutter during vows and prayers.

4. After the service, picture taking is only permitted for 30 minutes. Photographers must not move chancel furniture or items on the altar or in the choir loft.
5. The photographer is permitted to take flash pictures inside the church building only in the narthex just as the bride prepares to walk down the aisle and as the couple leaves the sanctuary immediately after the service.

Service Bulletins

St. James's will provide bulletins for the wedding or, if you prefer, you may create your own with approval from the church's Wedding Director. The bulletin is a worship leaflet and, while it makes a nice memento of the occasion, its purpose is to help your guests participate in the service.

The outline of the service, the music, the readings, dedication of memorial altar flowers, and the participants in the service (including the wedding party) are all you need to include. Other announcements, such as directions to the reception, are best conveyed by other means. Sample bulletins are available from the church office.

If you would like the Church to provide your wedding bulletin, please complete a Bulletin Information Sheet (which is included in your wedding information packet) and return it to the Wedding Director at least two weeks before the wedding.

What Will It Cost?

The fees attached to wedding ceremonies at St. James's go toward the work and time of the many people required to make the liturgies possible.

St. James's Wedding Liturgies and Associated Fees

In the Nave:

A wedding in the nave is ideal for couples seeking a larger ceremony involving a wedding party and many guests. The church seats as many as 750 persons, including the balcony space. The church's Fisk organ is a magnificent instrument, and the balcony offers plenty of space for guest musicians.

Fees:

A fee of $2,000, payable to St. James's Episcopal Church, includes:

- Premarital counseling, the rehearsal, and wedding with the Officiant, including an honorarium for the discretionary fund
- The services of the Wedding Director
- Consultation, rehearsal and wedding with the Organist
- Altar and Flower Guild services, altar flowers, greenery, ribbon pew markers, candelabra, candles, and other sanctuary expenses
- Bulletins
- Sexton services for set-up and clean-up
- Visiting priests that the family retains must be paid directly

Not included in this fee are any additional costs for special requests, which may include:

- An additional priest serving as a co-Officiant (This person should be given a separate honorarium, typically ranging from $300-$500.)
- Additional musicians (soloists, instrumentalists, chimes pealer)
- Lay Eucharistic Minister or Crucifer for services that include Holy Eucharist
- Floral pew markers in place of ribbon pew markers
- Unusual or special flowers or arrangements

In the Chapel:

St. James's chapel is a beautiful and intimate space. A wedding in the chapel is ideal for couples seeking a small ceremony involving no more than 25 people (including the wedding party).

Fees:

Unlike a ceremony in the nave, music, altar flowers, bulletins and the services of the Wedding Director and sexton are not provided for a chapel wedding. The only fee required is a $500 honorarium for the priest's discretionary fund. However, should a couple desire to have music or altar flowers, the following arrangements may be made and fees will be assessed.

- If flowers are used at the altar, arrangements must be made through the Flower Guild Chairman at a cost of $200. The fee may be higher if unusual or special flower requests are made.
- Music must be arranged through the organist. A fee of $300 is required if her service is rendered at the wedding for either the organ or piano; other fees may be applicable if other musicians are requested.

Receptions at St. James's

While many couples choose to have a rehearsal dinner or wedding reception at clubs and facilities around the Richmond metropolitan area, St. James's beautiful Valentine Hall in the Michaux House located across Birch Street from the church is also available for these uses. Please make arrangements with the Parish Coordinator when scheduling your wedding date.

A $1,500 fee to hold a rehearsal dinner/reception here includes the use of the first floor of the Michaux House, including Valentine Hall, and the kitchen for three hours, plus one hour setup and one hour cleanup times. Extra set up time may be arranged for an additional $50 per hour. Saturday receptions must conclude no later than 8:00 p.m. in order for Valentine Hall to be re-set for Sunday.

Unless other arrangements are made, the kitchen is to be used solely as a catering kitchen, with caterers providing not only the food and beverages, but also all tablecloths, plates, utensils, glasses, napkins, etc. A list of preferred caterers is available upon request by contacting the Facilities Coordinator. Beer and wine, including champagne, may be served if an ABC permit is obtained, but "hard" liquors and spirits are not permitted.

General Rules for Use of the Michaux House:

1. Smoking is not permitted anywhere on the premises.
2. The couple will designate a person who will be responsible for keeping order during the event and will be personally liable for excessive cleanup and any damage.
3. Tables and chairs are available for use and are not allowed from an outside source.
4. Furniture or rugs may not be moved without permission. No decorations or signs may be placed in the building using tape, tacks, et
